WELCOME

Dear Mr. President,

The National Coarse Fishing Federation of Ireland (NCFFI) invites you to participate in the 4th World Feeder Fishing Championships, which will be hosted on Inniscarra Reservoir near the village of Coachford, Co Cork on the 19th and 20th July 2014. The World Championships will be organised by the National Coarse Fishing Federation of Ireland.

The National Coarse Fishing Federation of Ireland (NCFFI) represents anglers and their clubs on the Island of Ireland and was formally established in 1962 and at the same time became affiliated member of CIPS Tourism.

The NCFFI has hosted a number of World Freshwater Angling Championships, 1968 on the River Blackwater in Fermoy, Co Cork. 1982 the Newry Canal, Newry, Co Down. 1992 the Erne, Enniskillen, Co Fermanagh. 1999 European Championships Lough Muckno, Castleblaney, Co Monaghan. 2013 World Championships for Boat Fishing with Lures on the Erne system, Enniskillen. We are continuing to build good experience running and organising events like these. See more at www.ncffi.ie

We are looking forward to your visit to our beautiful Country and your participation in this great Championship and as the hosts we hope you will have great fishing and enjoy your visit to Ireland.

Oliver McGauley
President NCFFI

WHERE WE ARE AND HOW TO JOIN US

Coachford Coordinates: 51°54'34"N 08°47'18"W

Coachford is a village west of Cork City, Co Cork in the Province of Munster, Ireland. It is located on the north side of the River Lee. Coachford got its name from Áth an Chóiste (Ford of the Coaches) as there used to be a narrow ford across a stream (which is now part of the River Lee). The Lee was flooded for a hydroelectric power plant and farmlands including many houses were flooded by the newly formed lake which was created in 1956.

Coachford is located around a crossroads where the R618 and R619 regional roads intersect. Cork City is 15 miles (24 km) Ireland's second largest city with a population of 120,000.
